TWO SIMPLE COMPONENTS THAT MAKE YOUR STUDY A SUCCESS!

Daily Individual Study

Using the INSTE interactive textbook and your Bible you dedicate one hour a day, five days a week, to study and prayer. The purpose of this time is to help you:
- Develop a consistent devotional time in which you come to know God in a vibrant, personal way.
- Acquire a solid knowledge of the Bible that will feed your spiritual life and help you develop a Christian world view.

Weekly Group Meetings

Once a week you meet with your small group (no more than ten) to discuss what you have learned, share experiences with your fellow disciples, and encourage one another in your spiritual walk. The purpose of this time together is to:
- Develop relationships with other believers. We call this “one anothering.”
- Discover your place in the Body of Christ through service to one another.

THREE EASY STEPS TO GET STARTED

1. Fill out the Enrollment Form
2. Give it to your church coordinator or group leader with the fees. (See the fee schedule on the enrollment form.)
3. Meet with your group to set a time and place for your group meetings.

THREE WAYS TO STUDY

1 Church Based Group
You may join a group in your local church. Led by a group leader, you will enjoy the companionship of other believers as you grow together in Christ.

2 Online Group
Take advantage of the convenience of online study. You get an e-book, interactive forums, and tests online. You will be part of an online group meeting through videoconferencing once a week. Check with the Director of Online Services for requirements.

3 Hybrid Group
Do a bit of both. Perhaps you are part of a local group that prefers to study and take tests online but meet each week as a local group.
There are many variations to a hybrid group. Contact INSTE to discuss the possibilities.

By the way...
Did we tell you that you can study in English or Spanish?

Call me with any questions you have. We will help you reach your goals.
